Bed

I sleep in my bed at night.

My head rests on a pillow,
and a blanket keeps me warm.

My bed has a headboard behind my pillow and four bedposts.

Dresser

I keep my clothes in a dresser.

It has seven drawers and a flat shelf on the top.

I pull the drawers out with the round knobs.

The dresser stands on little legs.

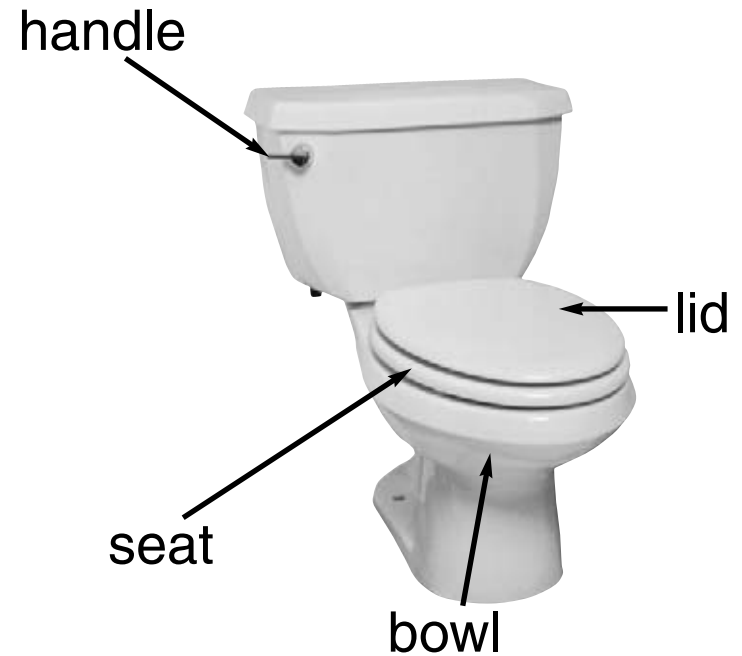

Clock

My clock has a round face on top of a metal stand.

The short, fat hour hand points to the hours.

The long, skinny minute hand points to the minutes.

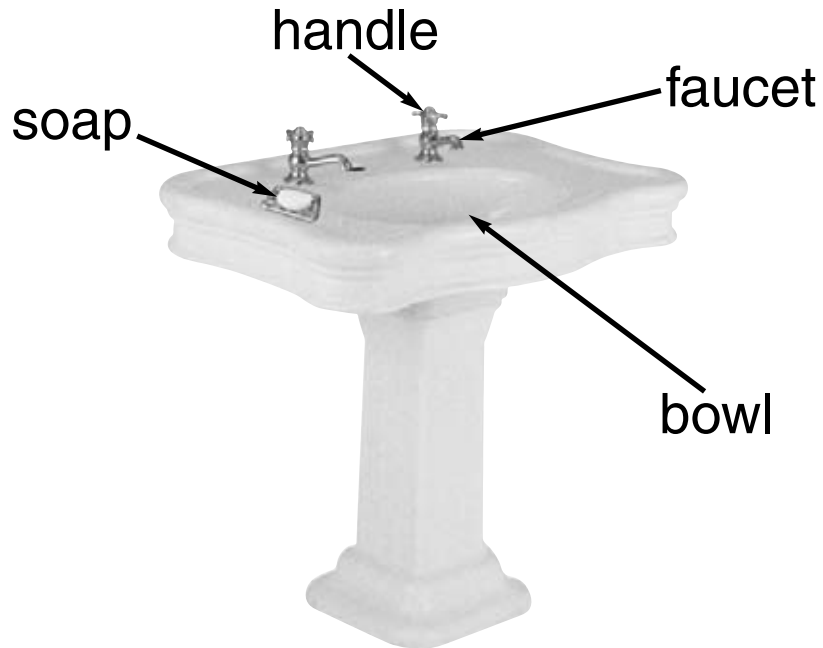

Toilet

I lift the lid of the toilet and sit on the seat.

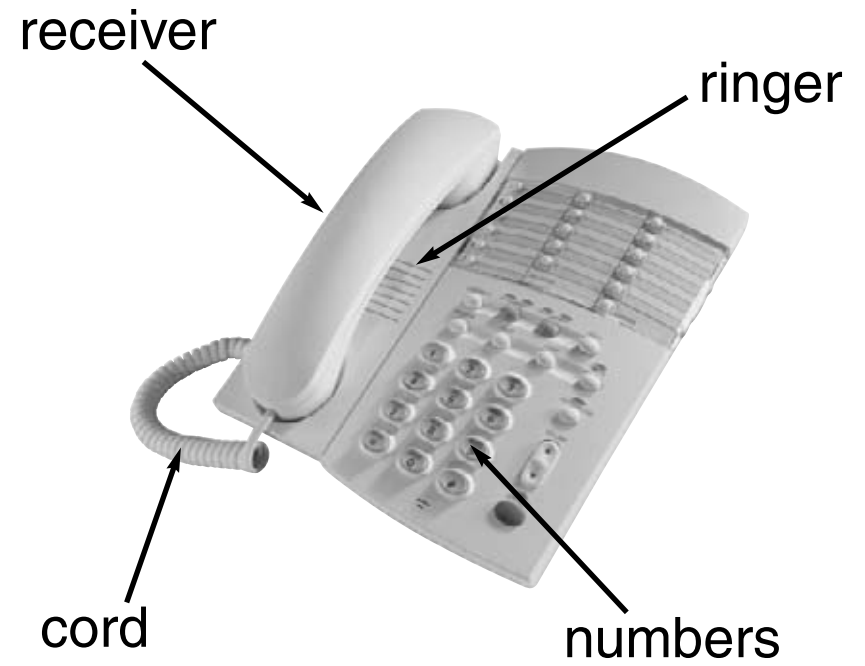

When I am finished, I push the handle to flush the toilet.

Water swirls around inside the bowl.

Sink

I wash my hands in the sink.
 I turn the handle of the faucet
 to turn the water on and off.
 Water pours out of the faucet.
 I use the soap that sits on the top of the sink.

Telephone

When someone calls our house,
 the telephone ringer rings.
 I pick up the receiver to talk.
 The receiver is joined to the phone with a curly cord.
 I dial the numbers to make a call.

Sofa

Our sofa is very soft.

I sit on the seat cushions.

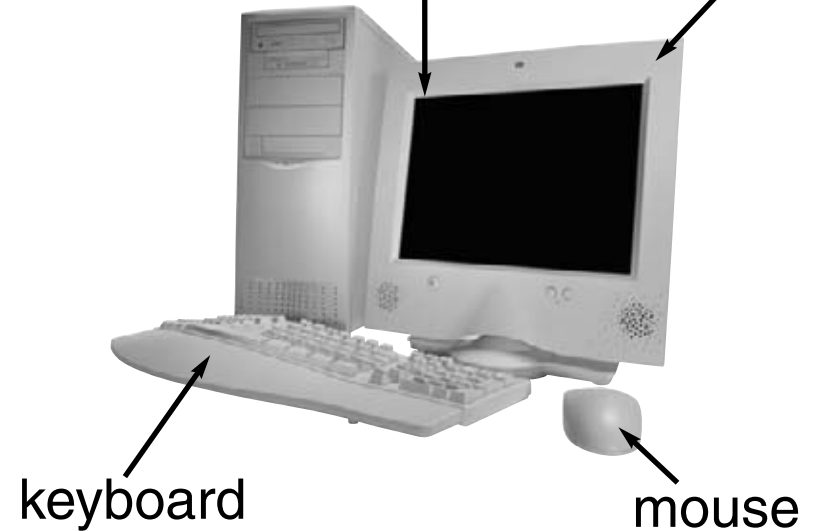

I put my arm on the armrest.

I rest on the pillows.

Our cat, Susie, likes to sit on the sofa, too.

monitor

Computer

This is our computer.

I look at the monitor

to read the words on the screen.

I type with the keyboard,

and I click with the little mouse.

I like to use our computer.
