

Present Continuous

Instructions

1. Person 1 will ask a question to Person 2.
2. Person 2 will answer in a complete sentence, using the Simple Past tense.
3. Person 2 will then ask the same question to Person 1 (or Person 3 if there are three people in the group).
4. Move to the next question once everyone has answered.

Questions with Be - Irregular Verb

- Definition: To exist in the world, or to describe someone or something.
1. "How are you being different this semester compared to last semester?"
 2. "In what way are you being a better friend/family member/student these days?"

Questions with Have - Irregular Verb

- Definition: To possess, own, or hold something.
1. "What class are you having the most trouble with right now, and why?"
 2. "What kind of weather are we having this week, and how is it affecting you?"

Questions with Go - Irregular Verb

- Definition: To move from one place to another.
1. "Where are you going after this class, and what will you do there?"
 2. "What new place are you going to for the first time soon?"

Questions with Do - Irregular Verb

- Definition: To perform an action or task.

1. "What are you doing to improve your English outside of class?"
2. "What's something you're doing these days that you didn't do before?"

Questions with Want - Regular Verb

- Definition: To desire something but not necessarily require it.

1. "What food are you really wanting to eat right now, and why?"
2. "What skill are you wanting to learn these days?"

Questions with Need - Regular Verb

- Definition: To require something because it is necessary or important.

1. "What are you needing to buy soon, and why?"
2. "What's something your school/dorm is needing to fix or improve?"